NEW YORK, Sept 3 - Announcemen that the Guggenheims had lest stock control of the American Smelting and Refining Company and that Daniel Guggenheim, president of the great or-ganization, thought so little of it as an investment that he had sold all his comnon stock and held only one share of G. preferred, caused a break of more than wo points in the common stock at the opening of the market in Wall Street today. The stock was quickly purchased today. The stock was quickly purchased however on this decline and traders quickly discovered that an attempt is being made to trick them. The Smelting trust was never in its history in such a strong position as at present. The industrials were especially soft. Locomotive broke, 1½; Copper, 1¼, and he list at least fractionally.
The declines of the morning and early

The declines of the morning and early afternoon were accentuated during the last hour or two of the session. Harriman permitted Southern Pacific to join the downward movement, and the entire list sagged badly. The declines in Smelter exceed the net loss of four points for the day, but some little covering later in the session caused fractional recoveries. It sold to 91%, recoveried to 92%, and closed around 92. Southern Pacific dropped to 166% from the high 108, and did not recover much. St.

TWO ARRESTS MADE IN "OPIUM" CRUSADE

Anti-Dope Agitation Started was a distinct disappointment to followers of the stock. by Times Is Bearing Fruit.

Two more arrests were made today for violation of the new pharmacy law, Lee Sing, 346 Pennsylvania avenue, and Precinct Detective Armstrong made the arrest. He claims to have all the necessary evidence with which to con-vict. He says he has the Celestials caught with the goods.

Released on Bond.

The Chinamen pleaded not guilty and demanded a jury trial. Lee Sing was released under $200 bond and Lee Mong that the old reliable has earned its dividend.

Detective Armstrong, who is in charge of the crusade against the illicit sale of oplum, stated that before the week had closed he would ask for warrants for half a dozen more.

Exhausted from a long flight, a carrier pigeon alighted in the yard of the home of Mrs. W. L. Frazier, 728 Fifth street northwest yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Frazier picked up the tired bird, ted it, and gave it water. This morning the pigeon was found dead from the effects of its long flight. The pigeon was marked "S. A. 30393."

FINANCIAL GOSSIP. The serious break in Smelters yesterday was due to a report that the Gug-genheims had parted with much of closing. their stock on the advanced market and that this interest now owned less than 1,000 shares all told. The Rockefellers March8.48 are out, bag and baggage, and the result of this elimination of strong interests,

IN FIRE DEPARTMENT

Upon recommendation of Chief Belt. The crusade against the optum trade, which was instituted by The Times, is bearing fruit. The police say that the news has reached the ears of every Chinaman in, Washington, and that from this time forward it will be extremely difficult for strangers to purchase optum.

NEW YORK COTTON CLOSED WEAK, LOWER

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Cotton this morning opened firmer at an advance of five to seven points, influenced by favorable advices from the market at Liverpool and more cheerful news from Manchester. After the call the list held its gain with an active room trade in all leading months. Reported that interests at Liverpool had brought heavily of October, December, and January, taking about 20,000 bales.
